Risk

1.10pm Recalibrate Your Risk Radar

The last two years have shown us (and the world) just how critical, robust – yet agile – supply chains are to our economies and our communities. We need to sharpen our risk radar, and diversify our supply bases by investing in local sourcing, social procurement, sustainability and indigenous sourcing. Matt Perfect, Principal, Impact Spender and The Faculty Communities Chair, leads this impactful discussion.

1.15pm Understanding Unconscious Bias

How do personal beliefs and professional behaviour impact your bias – and your business? Kristal Kinsela, a proud and passionate Indigenous business leader and Procurement expert will share insights and experiences to help you understand where unconscious bias comes from, where it exists in their workplace and create strategies to manage it.

1.45pm Responsible Sourcing: ESG Trends In Australia – The Price & Payoff

How do you implement a truly integrated and socially responsible approach to your sourcing process? Estelle Lewis, IKON Services, takes us on the long walk and shares insights on the current ESG trends.

2.15pm Realising The Power Of Sustainable Procurement

Will your Sustainable Procurement strategies align with overall company strategies? Sarah O’Brien, CEO of Sustainable Purchasing Leadership Council, (SPLC), will demonstrate how Procurement needs to respond to the needs of customers, investors and employees to meet ESG expectations.

2.40pm Performing Under Pressure

Step up to the crease with a calm, collected countenance as the pressure mounts and the demands become overwhelming. Retired cricketing legend Glenn McGrath AM shares his inspirational story of grace under pressure, unsullied leadership, and greatness during his historic innings.

3.30pm Afternoon Tea & Photo Opportunity With Glenn McGrath

4.15pm Reimagine

After a high-velocity day, your brain will be buzzing – now we’ve hoarded all the best insights, it’s time to “declutterate” and synthesise the day’s learnings – over to you Phuel!

5.00pm Closing Remarks

5.10pm End Day 1

From 5.45pm – Join us at the River Room, Drinks and Canapes followed by the Gala Dinner

People

- 1.20pm Rework: Leading With Purpose - The life-work Shift
The outbreak of Covid-19 upended how we work. More than two years on, it is still forcing businesses to rewrite the playbook for how we do business. Leading businesses are recalibrating how they acquire the talent they need to win in today's ultra-competitive markets. Peter Hamilton, Managing Director, KellyOCG and Corey Tutt, CEO and Founder of DeadlyScience will share just how organisations are adapting to new realities and leading with purpose for both talent and business success.
- 1.50pm Don't Blend In Stand Out
Leverage differences, diversity and inclusion to unlock the true potential of your team and harness innovation. Explore how Diversity can grow your business with one of Australia's foremost diversity and inclusion experts, Div Pillay, CEO of MindTribes.
- 2.20pm The Great Reset
Despite relentless challenges, constant recalibrations and wearying changes, manage your motivation, synthesise new developments and stay ahead of the competition. Rob Rossano from Phuel unlocks the secrets to improving performance, tempering your "emotional state" effectively, unlocking your ability and performing at your peak - day after day - as you navigate the Great Procurement Reset.
- 3.40pm Closing Remarks & Wrap Up Tania Seary
- 3.50pm Afternoon Tea & End Of Forum
