

BRAVO 2022

Be part of something bigger

LEADERSHIP PROGRAM FOR WOMEN IN PROCUREMENT
CHAIN

The path to the top
can be tough,
actually, it can be more like an obstacle course :)

On my career journey, there have definitely been good days and bad. But I've come to accept that both the visible and invisible roadblocks are an inevitable part of professional life... and actually can prove to be the best learning opportunities!

I've also learnt that you don't have to do it alone: in my experience, a community of brilliant women (and men!) can be the ticket to inspire, support and supercharge your career.

And that's what I'm passionate about – seeing women in procurement and supply chain helping each other to do better, progress and to become part of something bigger.

Are You Ready?

BRAVO! You've achieved so much in the last few years. You've not only survived, but you've thrived!

You've stayed close to home, developed your skills and got the job done. But now it's time to Be Part of Something Bigger!

First and foremost, BRAVO is about empowering you to take charge of your career and to reach your full potential. It is an eight-month online membership program designed to help you unpack self-limiting beliefs, set professional goals, learn to negotiate the career you want and come to grips with the current rules of play at work.

Join this exciting program to:

Achieve your career goals

The global pandemic has disrupted many working women's career trajectories. It's time to get back on track and make sure you have the skills, knowledge and network you need to keep your professional development aligned with your career aspirations.

Drive the economic recovery

'Bells for gender equality are ringing in the stock markets ... as a powerful sign that a sustainable and inclusive economic recovery will depend largely on how much we invest in women.'

— IDBINVEST.ORG, MARCH 2021

Build a global network of women in procurement

Innovation is not a solo pursuit. It takes a community of diverse and creative thinkers to help solve some of the big challenges that exist today in our supply chains. Join your global peers to work together in the pursuit of solutions and help create a powerful network of like-minded women.

Break down cross-company and industry silos

Sometimes the best ideas are inside your very own company, but you haven't been provided the forum for collaborating. Similarly, sometimes we are caught in the silo of our own company or industry and can't break out. BRAVO is designed to break down these barriers for you to grow and learn from your peers, mentors and thought leaders.

Improve cultural diversity

The future belongs to more diverse and productive workplaces. Our members come from all industries and backgrounds. We make sure everyone has a voice so that our learnings are richer and more meaningful.

Support ALL women in the supply chain

As a powerful collective, we can provide a platform where women's voices are heard. We can shine a light on unfair labour practices and ethical sourcing dilemmas that exist and begin to build understanding and action to protect women and children within our supply chain

Grow demand for female talent in procurement and supply chain

In a time of talent shortage, fostering growth and leadership is an essential part of the employee value proposition. By showing that gender is valued within our profession and shouting about BRAVO from the rooftops, we will encourage more women to join our ranks and ensure a gender-diverse future for our profession.

Let us hear you roar!

Did you know that 2022 is the Year of the Tiger?

In the Chinese Zodiac, the Year of the Tiger is all about courage, confidence and strong will! This certainly sounds like you... and the rest of our BRAVO community!

Your BRAVO briefcase

You've got to have the right tools for the job.

BRAVO is an eight month leadership development program with all the tools you need to rocket your professional growth this year.

The program is packed with valuable learnings, the best conversations, countless tools, strategies and inspiration to help you negotiate the career you want.

You will have opportunities to create new connections and build your network and hear directly from inspiring women and directly ask them questions.

Here's what you'll find in your briefcase -

Events to Inspire

You will be invited to two amazing events - see some of the world's greatest women cover topics that will leave you feeling inspired and ready to take on anything!

The BRAVO launch event will provide an opportunity for our 2022 members to come together and celebrate the start of an amazing journey.

A few months later, you will receive your exclusive invitation to our flagship event - an afternoon of high vibe, high energy and high performing women sharing their success (and failure!) stories.

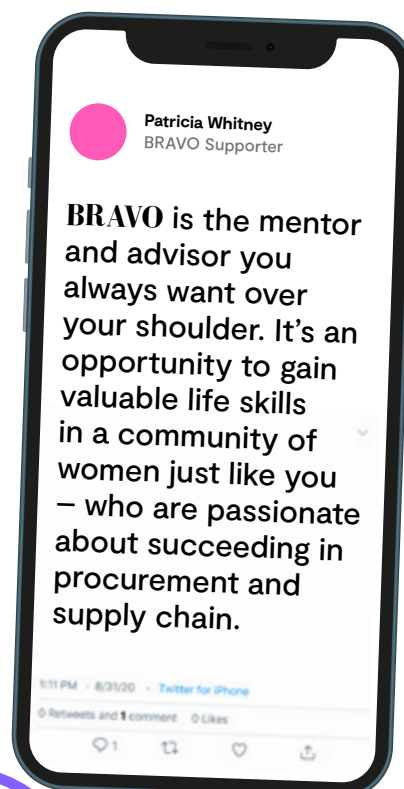

Masterclasses that Matter

Curated to cover the issues that will help you build courage and take charge of your career. Delivered online by world-class thinkers, you will be invited to 5 x 60 minute masterclasses jam-packed with case studies, practical advice, tools and live Q&A opportunities to fuel your learning and your energy levels.

Mentoring

You are invited to join a truly inspiring women-only learning and mentorship program designed exclusively for ambitious women in procurement and supply chain. You will have 4 unique opportunities to either be a mentor or a mentee and connect with other BRAVO members to discuss topics to benefit you both personally and professionally.

A Buddy

Our alumni have told us how much they loved connecting with other women in the same profession. This year, you have the opportunity to be matched with another female procurement executive from anywhere in the world to share your BRAVO journey with and hopefully develop a lifelong professional connection.

Program Workbooks

To help put your learnings into action, we've gathered all the resources, including digital handouts and worksheets, from the program together in one hub. You can find practical worksheets and information to reference as you operationalise your learnings and embed new skills into your ways of working.

Library of Inspiring Women

You'll get exclusive access to our online library of talks and resources produced by inspiring women – some from procurement and others who are leaders in their field of career development, coaching and motivation.

Global network membership

Because BRAVO is more than just a learning program or a series of networking events, it's about building a community of like-minded women in procurement who want to be part of something bigger. We've created an online group on Procurious for women in procurement to gather and interact with members of the procurement profession around the world.

Journal

You will also receive your unique BRAVO journal – a keepsake to record some of the insights and inspirations you learn along the way.

No One belongs here more than you

No matter where you are in your career journey, you will benefit from this program.

BRAVO is for procurement and supply chain thought leaders, next generation rising stars, women returning to the workforce, first-time managers – in short, women who want to advance their career and drive real world change.

It doesn't matter if you're from a small business or large, you will quickly feel at home within this network when you realise women – no matter where they are – face the same challenges.

You will more than likely get the opportunity to meet and connect with women from companies like BP, American Express, HSBC, Westpac, Orica, PwC, Rio Tinto, Sanofi, Santos and Shell.

What do people say about BRAVO?

Last year BRAVO had more than 400 members across 56 companies who attended 11 events with 45 speakers. More than 100 women participated in the mentoring program.

Dear <insert your manager names>,

I know <insert your company name> is committed to creating a diverse workforce and is striving to achieve a 50/50 gender representation at the senior level.

The vision of <insert your company name> is to cultivate the next generation of female leaders in the global procurement and supply chain sector at a time when procurement and supply chain are more important to our business success than ever before.

Procurement and supply chain has never been more critical to business success than ever before. This is the time to invest in career development. After much research, I have recently become aware of the BRAVO leadership program that meets many of the immediate hard and soft skill development needs, namely <insert skills you think are essential for you to learn here>.

The investment required is $3,000 excl GST which includes eleven training events, including:-

- 5 Masterclasses
- 4 Mentoring sessions
- 2 Inspiring events
- Access to videos and workbooks
- Online global procurement network

This equates to less than $300 per training event, which I hope you agree is great value.

An investment in the 2022 BRAVO Leadership Program will support my personal and professional growth while also ensuring <insert your company name> to strengthen the relationships beyond our team. As a result, this investment will lead to more impactful and positive outcomes professionally while acting as an influential and supportive advocate for women and their careers within our organization.

Masterclasses are part of the BRAVO program, which provide substantial outcomes for my development and the development of <insert your company name>. One of the overarching goals for the program is to shine a light on ALL women in the supply chain, which, as you know, will also support our focus on improving our modern slavery and ethical sourcing performance.

The program starts in early June. Please let me know your thoughts on this leadership program as soon as you have had time to consider.

I'm always up to chat about my career development whenever you are free!

Sincerely,

Send
